It is a well known fact that Dyspepsia and Indigestion are the causes of nearly all the discuses that the human body is heir to: then why pay enormous doctor's bills? Go To Alexanders' for your drugs. PIONEER NEWS DEPOT, Main street—C. A PARTY of prospector left yesterday for the new Cherry Creek mines.

WHILE taking a walk around town yesterday, with the disengaged air of the true local reporter, when items are scarce as roses in January—when the mining review is unwritten, and not a superintendent can be found—we were necosted by our genial friend John C. Lynch, who proposed to give us an insight into the wholesale department of his extensive business. After dallying for a moment, in the immediate vicinity of the retail branch of the establishment, we accompanied him down stairs, where his large stock of Equors, etc., are kept. Here we found a fire-proof cellar, dug out of the soil ground and roch, 50 feet in length by about 16 im width and perhaps 10 to 12 feet high, filled as closely as it is possible to pack it with liquors of all kinds—from whisly in the original packages to the delicate wines of France, cigars of many and choice brands, liquers, porter, ale, etc., etc. Mr. Lynch informed us that there terms as that he heard a snapping noise in his office on one of the saltention, and on looking up he saw a bunch of the saltention. The matches blazing. Not a ray of sunshine penetrated the room, but he soon discovered the cause of the self-ignition. The matches were put up in the block form, and, when taken from the package, had a paper closely pasted over the frietion tends. This had been slipped off. They were among papers and sunder, the concussion setting them after. They were among papers and other inflammable material, and neight time instead of day-time, when a destructive instead of a day-time in terday, with the disengaged air of the Barnes adorms us that he heard a snapchoice brands, liquers, porter, ale, etc., etc., Mr. Lynch informed us that there were upwards of $20,000 worth of liquors there stored.

A GOOD JOER WELL PLAYED .- A wag drew a coin check for $7,000 on Wells, Fargo & Co., yesterday, in the name of a party whom he knew had neither money nor credit in the bank, and dropped it on the street as a joke-breeder. A couple of Cornishmen happened along and picked it up; they opened it and read it; they then hurried around a corner and eagerly read it a second time; and then, bright visions of Merry England, home and happiness filling their hearts with joy, they rushed to the bank to get their hafful of double-eagles. We will not attempt to portray their disappointment when they ascertained the sample with the law for attempting "to get their harful of cruelty when he threatened them with the law for attempting "to get their harful of the process of the failure of the fail scrap of paper was worthless; but must suggest that the wag carried his humor into crueity when he threatened them with the law for attempting "to get money under false pretenses." It was a good joke well played.

before stated we hope the capitalists of Pioche will join those of Utah in further-ing the iron, coal and milroad interests. In another column will be found an ex-tract from the Rxconn, stating that Pioche men are already engaged in opening up a coal vein thirteen feet thick and of the best quality."

SILVER BELT.—This is a district which has been organized about a year. It is about sixty miles nearly due east from Pioche. The ore carries a great deal of galena, but it is believed it can be milled. There are now about forty men in the camp, all of whom seem to think they have a good thing. A few tons of Silver Belt ore will soon be haused to Bullionville for reduction, to practically test its

WHY DON'T IT COME TO HAND?-At least a half-dozen citizens of Pioche have sent to the office of the Secretary of the State, at Carson, at least a half a dozen times, for a certified copy of the new town law, but, from some cause unac-countable to them and us, it has not been forwarded. Will the Secretary favor some of the applicants with a letter iving his reason for witholding it?

Five or six hundred men with two or three foot-balls, which they kept in the air constantly, tried, last night, to outice us to write another item on that played-out subject, foot-ball. We won't notice foot-ball again until some fellow's nose is smashed or shin broken, or a dozen windows are shivered.

RUNAWAY .- An ore-team, standing at the dump of the Pioche mine, took fright, yesterday afternoon, and ran ome distance, but as there were ten tons of ore on the wagon they couldn't make much headway and did but triffing dam-

STONE COAL PROM KANABRA. - George Chaffin arrived yesterday from the coal mines in the vicinity of Kanarra, bringing three and a quarter tons of coal for the Raymond & Ely Company. He returns at once for another load. The coal is of excellent quality.

GEORGE CHAPPIN, just in from the coal and iron mines of Utah, informs us that of the summer sunset? Strange it the sale of one of the Kanarra iron mines also, that the face only, and that the to an English company has not yet been consummated, but that it probably will be soon. If effected extensive iron works will be erected at once.

A Horse Race.-A spirited race between one of Travis' horses and "Silvertail" took place on lower Main street, between Boone & Dolman's and John-son's stable, "Silvertail" being distanced. It was an impromptu affair, or the result might have been different. The race attracted a large number of spectators.

Col. Thornton, Judge Garber and Captain Wescoatt will soon retorn from Eureka. The examination in the case in which they are engaged was closed yesterday, as we learn from private dis-

OUR COAL AND IRON INTERESTS.—We clip the following from the Salt Lake Tribune of the 20th: "The people of Pioche, according to the RECORD, are becoming very much interested in the coal and iron of Southern Utah. They are right in this, for what tends to build up Southern Utah cannot fail to help Southenstern Nevada. And as we have before stated we hope the capitalists of or thought should send that inimitable carnation over the cheek like the soft tint man face, is capable of blushing—that the hand or foot does not turn red with modesty or shame any more than the glove or sock that covers them. It is the face that bears the angel's impress; it is the face that is in heaven. The blush of modesty that tinted woman's face when she awoke in Eden's sunny land still lingers with her fair daughters. They caught it from the tinted rose—for all the roses were first white; but when Eve plucked one, the bud, seeing her own fair face, more fair than the flowers, blushed and cast its reflex on her velvet check. cheek. The face is the tablet of the soul. whereon it writes its action. There may be traced all the intellectual phenomena be traced all the intellectual phenomena with confidence amounting to a moral certainty. If innocence and purity look outward from within, none the less do vice, intemperance and debauchery make their indelible impression upon it. Idi-ocy, rage, cowardice and passion leave their traces deeper, even, than the vir-tues of modesty, truth, chastity and hope. Even beauty grows more beauti-ful from the pure thoughts that arise within us.

AN OLD-PASHIONED MOTHER.-Thank AN OLD-PASHIONED MOTHER.—Thank God some one of us has an old-fashioned mother—not a woman of the period, enameled and painted, with her great chignon, her curls bottines, white jew-sled hands that have never felt the clasp of baby fingers, but a dear, old-fashioned sweet voiced mother, with eyes in whose depths the love-light shown, and brown hair threaded with silver, lying smoothly upon her faded cheek. Those dear upon her faded cheek. Those dear hands, worn with toil, which guided our hands, worn with toil, which guided our tottering steps in childhood and smoothed our pillow in sickness. Blessed is the memory of an old-fashioned mother. It floats to us now like the beautiful perfume of some woodland biossoms. The music of other voices may be lost, but the entrancing memory of her's will ecbo in our souls forever. Other faces will fade away and be forgotten, but her's will shine on until light from heaven's portals shall glorify our own.
